DIVERSIONS OF EARLIER GEORGIA

Micajah Williamson kept a licensed tavern in the town of Washington. In front of this tavern was a large picture of George Washington hanging as a swinging sign. John Clarke (governor 1819-23) used to come to town and, like most men of his day, get drunk. They all did not "cut up," however, as he did on such occasions. He went into stores and smashed things generally, as tradition says, but he always came back and paid for them like a gentleman. Once he came into town intoxicated and galloped down Court street and fired through the picture of General Washington before the tavern door. This was brought up against him later when he was a candidate for governor, but his friends denied it.—Macon Telegraph.

Everwear Hosiery
is Always Good News

There's much in starting the day right. There's nothing so irritating to mind and body as hosiery that is patched and darned. Everwear always has a pleasant feeling. It starts you off in the morning with comfort and carries you through the day without reminding you of hosiery's torture at every step. This Standard American Hosiery has actually abolished the necessity for darning. Your first box will prove this to your satisfaction.
